

Acme Paper & Supply's Ronald Attman Recognized as a "2013 Most Admired CEO" by Maryland Daily Record

SAVAGE, MD – July 31, 2013 – Ronald Attman, CEO of Acme Paper & Supply Co., the leading Mid-Atlantic distributor of innovative, customized and cost-effective packaging, has been recognized as a "Most Admired CEO" among private companies with more than 150 employees by the Maryland Daily Record.

Attman is one of 29 Maryland business leaders who will be honored at a special inaugural event on September 19 at the Hilton BWI Airport Hotel in Linthicum Heights.

"I feel honored and humbled to receive such a wonderful recognition," said Ronald Attman, CEO of Acme Paper & Supply Co. "I am very fortunate to work with a team of talented and innovative individuals, who help drive Acme Paper's success each and every day."

Most Admired CEOs identifies Maryland business leaders for the tremendous accomplishments they have made so far in their careers. Nominees are judged on professional experience, community involvement and a commitment to inspiring change.

About Acme Paper:

Founded in 1946, Acme Paper & Supply Co. is the leading Mid-Atlantic distributor of innovative, customized and cost-effective packaging, equipment and supplies, with an emphasis on sustainability. The company provides wholesale distribution to the hospitality, health care, recreation, education, food processing, and property management industries. In 2013, Acme Paper purchased ReStockIt.com, a recognized leader in business-to-business ecommerce. For more information about Acme Paper, visit www.acmepaper.com or call 410.792.2333.

###